

Summary – Introduction of Modifiers

Always PLACE the Modifier CLOSE to the NOUN that it modifies.

Modifiers that modify VERBS may be placed away from the modified verb. Sentence should not be ambiguous.

Black bookcase contains all the books that Amy likes to read, an avid reader.

Black bookcase contains all the books that Amy, an avid reader, likes to read.